'Engaging patients for patient safety'

The banner features a dark blue navigation bar at the top with the World Health Organization logo and menu items: Health Topics, Countries, Newsroom, Emergencies, Data, and About. Below the navigation bar is a grid of colorful panels (green, yellow, blue, pink) containing photos of diverse people: an elderly woman, a doctor, a man, a young boy, a man with glasses, a woman, a group of people, a woman with glasses, a doctor with a stethoscope, a child, a woman, and an elderly woman. A dark blue horizontal bar across the middle contains the text 'World Patient Safety Day' in white. A smaller dark blue box in the bottom left corner contains the date '17 September 2023'.
